

SAURDAY, MAY 26, 1882.

HACK DRIVERS.

One of the matters of local regulation that requires the attention of the authorities, is that of the management of vehicles for hire, commonly known as "express wagons." There are at the present time 175 of these licensed in Honolulu, and while by law their harness equipment, &c. is under police supervision, and the rates of charges and stands are regulated by the Minister of the Interior, there is absolutely no qualification required of those who are to drive them. And so we see frequently ill-broken and otherwise unfit horses in charge of mere boys and native men of no experience, while the irrepressible Chinaman, who assumes to "sabbie" everything that has money in it, is extensively taking up the occupation of a hack driver. If there is any one thing more than another that we should hesitate about doing, it would be the trusting ourselves in a hack driven through some of our narrow, crowded streets by a Chinaman. There are doubtless skillful and careful drivers among the hackmen of this city, but there are a good many "on the contrary, quite reverse," as Mrs. Gamp would say. This is one of those things that, if we had a city government, it would be its duty to attend to—the examination and licensing of drivers as well as of vehicles. Is it too much to expect, that the Honolulu delegation in the Assembly will spare enough of their time from the consideration of the Ten Million Loan and Opium and Liquor Bills, to devote a little attention to the subject of hack drivers?

A RARE opportunity for parties desiring to invest in real estate, will be offered to-day at the Auction sales room of Mr. Adams, being some thirteen parcels of desirable property, mostly situated on the plains East of the city. Besides this, an eligible building lot, large size, on the extension of Beretania Street; and the four years lease of "Ford's Island," at Ewa, will be offered. And the Marshal will also sell, under execution, nearly an acre of land off Liliha Street. All these sales are set for twelve o'clock, to-day. See advertisements.

The building lot on Beretania st. will be sold at auction to-day.

A L. PERSONS SEEKING Employment, and all parties either in Honolulu or at any of the Islands in the Group in want of Employees will please make their wants known to the undersigned, who will do all in their power to fill their orders. 1 F. C. Jones, Jr., J. B. Atherton, B. F. Dillingham, Employment Committee Y. M. C. A.

Mr. Editor:—Through you I beg to thank Mr. P. C. Jones, Jr. for his courtesy and attention, but must say that I fail to be convinced by the declaration of the Rev. Geo. E. Ellis (albeit a keen observer as he probably is) that "nine cases out of ten in Court were [or are] brought in on account of drunkenness." In fact, the assertion is a mere ad captandum one, not at all borne out by facts, either in Boston, here, or anywhere else. I readily admit, what every one must see and admit, that drunkenness is at the bottom of a great many of the offenses committed against law and good order; but not to the extent of nine-tenths. I am reminded of Talleyrand, a woman hater, who, when he heard of any crime or folly having been committed, always enquired, "Who is she?"—assuming as a matter of course that a woman was at the bottom of it. So it appears with such prohibitionists as the Rev. Mr. Ellis, if any body has got a case in Court, it must of course have been through drunkenness. The gentleman is evidently an intemperate temperance man—in his talk. As to Rockwell County, Texas. I am glad to hear that prohibition is a success there. Other isolated place might be mentioned which are similarly blessed, but they are vastly different in their surroundings and all their circumstances from this Island Kingdom. And this brings me to say, with all due respect to Mr. Jones, that his reply to me is a begging of the question, for therein he does not allude once to the growth of smuggling and illicit distilling, which will inevitably ensue upon prohibition, and which will give plenty of employment to all the police we now have, and more too.

A Chinaman was brought to the Queen's Hospital yesterday, pretty badly used up, being insensible from concussion of the brain and having sustained a very bad cut across the knee-pan, severing the muscles and cords. The story is, that there was a little gambling party, and this particular Celestial, on account of some slight unpleasantness, got off a verandah in a hurry and had a fall.

The "Tourists" offer a fine bill for this evening at Music Hall, and we may expect that their farewell will be a bumper. Mr. Isidor Rosencrantz makes his first appearance.

ABOUT 1 o'clock yesterday morning, Capt. Lord of the bark Emerald, lying at the Esplanade, was started from sleep in his cabin by hearing a slight rustling noise. Before the Captain could get out of his berth he had a glimpse of the thief going out of the door. On examination, it was found that six dollars in money and a valuable gold watch had been taken. Information was promptly given at the Station House of the robbery. The Captain had his money deposited, $2 in one pocket, $4 in another, and $10 in another, of his vest.
